Notices and Announcement

- Thank you to everyone who donated to the Nepal crisis. £400 was raised!
- Hymn Survey: Sometimes it is difficult to get the choice of hymns right for services. This is due to not always knowing “who knows what”, “have we ever sung this here”, “is this a favourite”, and hymns falling in and out of fashion. There are some survey sheets at the back of church and we'd be grateful if you could fill them in and return to Revd Jane or place in the box at the back of church.
- Removal of Dead Rose Bushes from Garden of Remembrance at St Bartholomew's: The PCC plan to remove the dead rose bushes within the garden of remembrance. We are not sure if any of them were planted in specific memory of someone. If you are aware of this kind of connection, please contact the Rector by 31st May 2015. The PCC is seeking horticultural advice as to how to replace the rose bushes and whether the soil conditions are correct for roses.
- Crosstalk The May magazine is available at the back of church.
- PCC Meeting Monday 11th May, 7.30pm at St Chad's.
- SOSO Community Choir are having a concert featuring a performance by Su, to raise funds for St Chad's kitchen refurbishment, on Tuesday 12th May at 8pm, Tickets £3, to include refreshments, available at both churches.

There was a very similar event held last year in Bebington which was a sell-out, attended by Revd Jane and Julie Deboorder and a couple of others. Revd Jane has already purchased her ticket for this event and has a couple of spaces in her car if anyone else wants to share transport.

- Do you wish some of our services were more contemporary, more vibrant, had more modern music ...? Then please come to a meeting at the Rectory on Sunday 17th May at 7.00pm. This is following on from our Survey at the end of last year. We have now met with our young people and know what they want, now the PCC needs to know how many adults are interested and whether we all mean the same thing by contemporary and vibrant. If you don't come we'll assume that you are happy with services as they are, but the survey indicated that some of you aren't – so please come!
- Wellspring Monday 18th May, 8pm at the Rectory. An opportunity to listen to God and to pray.
- EMU – 'From flowers to Vicar' by Margaret Fletcher on Wednesday 20th May, 8pm at St Chad's.

GOSPEL READING: John 15:9-17

All: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: 9'As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. 10If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. 11I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

12'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. 13No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14You are my friends if you do what I command you. 15I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. 16You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. 17I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.'

All: Praise to you, O Christ

GOSPEL READING: John 15:9-17

All: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: 9'As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. 10If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. 11I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

12'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. 13No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14You are my friends if you do what I command you. 15I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. 16You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. 17I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.'

All: Praise to you, O Christ

Notices and Announcement

- Thank you to everyone who donated to the Nepal crisis. £400 was raised!
- Hymn Survey: Sometimes it is difficult to get the choice of hymns right for services. This is due to not always knowing “who knows what”, “have we ever sung this here”, “is this a favourite”, and hymns falling in and out of fashion. There are some survey sheets at the back of church and we'd be grateful if you could fill them in and return to Revd Jane or place in the box at the back of church.
- Removal of Dead Rose Bushes from Garden of Remembrance at St Bartholomew's: The PCC plan to remove the dead rose bushes within the garden of remembrance. GOSPEL READING: John 15:9-17

All: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: 9'As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. 10If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. 11I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

12'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. 13No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14You are my friends if you do what I command you. 15I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. 16You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. 17I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.'

All: Praise to you, O Christ

Notices and Announcement

- Thank you to everyone who donated to the Nepal crisis. £400 was raised!
- Hymn Survey: Sometimes it is difficult to get the choice of hymns right for services. This is due to not always knowing “who knows what”, “have we ever sung this here”, “is this a favourite”, and hymns falling in and out of fashion. There are some survey sheets at the back of church and we'd be grateful if you could fill them in and return to Revd Jane or place in the box at the back of church.
- Removal of Dead Rose Bushes from Garden of Remembrance at St Bartholomew's: The PCC plan to remove the dead rose bushes within the garden of remembrance. We are not sure if any of them were planted in specific memory of someone. If you are aware of this kind of connection, please contact the Rector by 31st May 2015. The PCC is seeking horticultural advice as to how to replace the rose bushes and whether the soil conditions are correct for roses.
- Crosstalk The May magazine is available at the back of church.
- PCC Meeting Monday 11th May, 7.30pm at St Chad's.
- SOSO Community Choir are having a concert featuring a performance by Su, to raise funds for St Chad's kitchen refurbishment, on Tuesday 12th May at 8pm, Tickets £3, to include refreshments, available at both churches.
- Stuart Townend – Worship Concert. Fri 29th May, 7.30pm, Christ the King Church, 890 New Chester Rd, Bromborough, CH62 6AT. Tickets £12.50 (Concessions £10.00). Advance tickets only available from Tel: 0151 327 2182 or Tel: 0151 327 2138. There was a very similar event held last year in Bebington which was a sell-out, attended by Revd Jane and Julie Deboorder and a couple of others. Revd Jane has already purchased her ticket for this event and has a couple of spaces in her car if anyone else wants to share transport.

- Do you wish some of our services were more contemporary, more vibrant, had more modern music ...? Then please come to a meeting at the Rectory on Sunday 17th May at 7.00pm. This is following on from our Survey at the end of last year. We have now met with our young people and know what they want, now the PCC needs to know how many adults are interested and whether we all mean the same thing by contemporary and vibrant. If you don't come we'll assume that you are happy with services as they are, but the survey indicated that some of you aren't – so please come!
- Wellspring Monday 18th May, 8pm at the Rectory. An opportunity to listen to God and to pray.
- EMU – 'From flowers to Vicar' by Margaret Fletcher on Wednesday 20th May, 8pm at St Chad's.
- REFURBISHMENT OF ST CHAD'S HALL KITCHEN The estimated total cost of the project is about £10,000. Please see parish magazine page 16 for further details. Please could you send any contributions clearly labelled for St Chad's kitchen refurbishment to the parish office indicating whether the contribution can be considered as gift aided. Notices and Announcement

- Thank you to everyone who donated to the Nepal crisis. £400 was raised!
- Hymn Survey: Sometimes it is difficult to get the choice of hymns right for services. This is due to not always knowing “who knows what”, “have we ever sung this here”, “is this a favourite”, and hymns falling in and out of fashion. There are some survey sheets at the back of church and we'd be grateful if you could fill them in and return to Revd Jane or place in the box at the back of church.
- Removal of Dead Rose Bushes from Garden of Remembrance at St Bartholomew's: The PCC plan to remove the dead rose bushes within the garden of remembrance. We are not sure if any of them were planted in specific memory of someone. If you are aware of this kind of connection, please contact the Rector by 31st May 2015. The PCC is seeking horticultural advice as to how to replace the rose bushes and whether the soil conditions are correct for roses.
- Crosstalk The May magazine is available at the back of church.
- PCC Meeting Monday 11th May, 7.30pm at St Chad's.

Revd Jane has already purchased her ticket for this event and has a couple of spaces in her car if anyone else wants to share transport.

- Do you wish some of our services were more contemporary, more vibrant, had more modern music ...? Then please come to a meeting at the Rectory on Sunday 17th May at 7.00pm. This is following on from our Survey at the end of last year. We have now met with our young people and know what they want, now the PCC needs to know how many adults are interested and whether we all mean the same thing by contemporary and vibrant. If you don't come we'll assume that you are happy with services as they are, but the survey indicated that some of you aren't – so please come!
- Wellspring Monday 18th May, 8pm at the Rectory. An opportunity to listen to God and to pray.

GOSPEL READING: John 15:9-17

All: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples: 9'As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. 10If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. 11I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

12'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. 13No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14You are my friends if you do what I command you. 15I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. 16You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. 17I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.'

All: Praise to you, O Christ
